

Anne-Sophie Jullienne, Barrister

Anne-Sophie Jullienne is a practising Barrister at the English bar, as well as the Mauritius bar, and a non-registered barrister at the Paris bar. She has been practising in Mauritius, her home country, for the past 10 years and recently set up her own independent law firm under the PwC Legal name.

Prior to returning to Mauritius, Anne-Sophie worked for 9 years in London as an Associate in the dispute resolution teams of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and, subsequently, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP.

Anne-Sophie's firm provides both transactional and dispute resolution services to local and international corporate clients, as well as high net worth individuals. It also represents a number of clients pro bono, including the Sea Users Association.
